

ABRAHAM LINCOLN QUOTES

Bits of wisdom to ponder on...

- ~A person will be just about as happy as they make up their minds to be.
- ~Better to remain silent and be thought a fool, than to speak and remove all doubt.
- ~If I had eight hours to chop down a tree, I'd spend six sharpening my ax.
- ~You cannot escape the responsibility of tomorrow by evading it today.
- ~I am not concerned that you have fallen -- I am concerned that you arise.
- ~Am I not destroying my enemies when I make friends of them?
- ~Things may come to those who wait, but only the things left by those who hustle.
- ~Always bear in mind that your own resolution to succeed is more important than any other.
- ~I walk slowly, but I never walk backward.
- ~Always bear in mind that your own resolution to succeed, is more important than any other one thing.
- ~When I do good, I feel good. When I do bad, I feel bad. And that's my religion.
- ~Nearly all men can stand adversity, but if you want to test a man's character, give him power.
- ~America will never be destroyed from the outside. If we falter and lose our freedoms, it will be because we destroyed ourselves.
- ~No man is good enough to govern another man without that other's consent.
- ~You cannot escape the responsibility of tomorrow by evading it today.
- ~Let us at all times remember that all American citizens are brothers of a common country, and should dwell together in the bonds of fraternal feeling.
- ~I never had a policy; I have just tried to do my very best each and every day.
- ~Upon the subject of education, not presuming to dictate any plan or system respecting it, I can only say that I view it as the most important subject which we as a people can be engaged in.
- ~Don't interfere with anything in the Constitution. That must be maintained, for it is the only safeguard of our liberties. And not to Democrats alone do I make this appeal, but to all who love these great and true principles.
- ~Whenever I hear anyone arguing for slavery, I feel a strong impulse to see it tried on him personally.
